Motion Picture.

One of the greatest acquisitions in the motion picture business is the picture entitled The Northern Schoolmaster, and is a very new product of the film business. It is a powerful story of the Ku Klux days in the south, just after the great war, and embodies one of the most remarkable fire rescue of the most remarkable fire rescue scenes ever shown in moving pictures. of the most remarkable fire rescue scenes ever shown in moving pictures. Many other fine pictures will be shown, and among them are Lady Helen's Escapade, the big comedy drama, A Troublesome Satchel, Every Lass a Queen, dramatic, Martins Leave Home for a Week, Reforming a Husband, and the great comedy film, Uncle Reuben's Courtship. The pretty march song that will be featured by Mr. Delaney this week is entitled Ain't Alahama Good Enough for You? and carries an irresistible swing in its catchy chorus, and is accompanied by a handsome set of hand-colored slides to illustrate it.

This excellent bill offered by the Breed theater for the remainder of this week cannot fail to please its patrons, and the large audiences that are following these performances are very flattering in their praise of the home theater of this city.

The oldest banker in Milwaukee, Wis. Hoel H. Camp, recently died at the age of 87 years.
